No night but hath its morn. Have Faith! Where'er thy bank is driven— The calm's disport, the tempest's mirth— Know this: God rules the hosts of heaven,

Have love! Not love alone for one;
But man, as man, thy brother call;
And scatter, like the circling son,

Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul—
Hope, Faith and Love—and thou shalt find Strength when life's surges rudest roll;
Light when thou else wert blind.—Schiller. Major-General Geany closes his farewell order on the dissolution of the 2d Division, 20th Corps, in the following truly eloquent V-terans truly, every one of you. Men of whom our country is proud, and who are pow prouder than ever of your country. Your children, grand-children and great-grand-children will have passed away long before your heroic deeds shall be forgotten, or the memories of that great struggle through which we have stood shoulder to shoulder, and swept from the Atlantic to the Mississippi and back again to the Atlantic, shall cease to win our descendants to noble deeds and brave actions. Your country has been saved, and yours is no small share of the glorious right to be proud of the result.

A few months or years hence, and those of us who survive will again be citizens of the noblest, freest and proudest nation on the globe. Noble, because her nobility are her common people, who saved her in the years of peril-free, because truth, mighty and prevailing, by God's national purifier, the sword, has made her freeproud, because unaided and uncountenanged by other nations, she has demonstrated to the world that the people, who e lucate all their youth, and make all their. laws, can with the strong arms of the educated youth enforce the laws, maintain their integrity, and pay their debts. Be justly proud of our common record, and our common country. Cherish with the memories of the banner under which you gloriously fought and "QUICK SALES, SMALL PROFITS won the victory, the badge of our Union, a ting, and consecrate our devotion toour ed, our country and each other.

THE PERILS OF FALSEHOOD.

La the beautiful language of an eminent writer, "When once a concealment of de- At any Store in Fremont ceit has been practised in matters where all ould be fair and open as the day, confience can never be restored, any more an you can restore the white bloom to the grape or p u.a., which you have once pressed in your hand." How true is this and what a neglected truth by a great portion of mankind!

Falsehood is not only one of the most humiliating vices, but sooner or later it is certain to lead to many serious crimes.

With partners in trade-with partners in life-with friends-with lovers-how important is confidence! How essential that all guile and hypocrisy should be guarded against in the intercourse between such parties! How much misery would have been avoided in the history of many lives, had truth and sincerety been controling motives, instead of prevarications and deceit! "Any vice," said a wise parent, "at least among the frailties of a milder character, but talsehood. Far better that my child should commit an error, or do a wrong and confess it, than escape the penalty, however severe by falsehood and hypocricy. Let me know the worst, and a remedy may possibly be applied. But keep me in the dark—let me be mislead or deceived, and it is impossible to tall at what unprepared hour a crushing blow, an overwhelming exposure may come."

ANOTHER ATLANTIC CABLE. The failure of the Great Eestern has not discouraged either the shareholders of the Trans-Atlantic Cable Company or the new French company which has obtained permission to lay down a cable between France and the United States. M. Albar to Velestina has undertaken this enterprise at his own risk. But this time the company does not intend to submerge a cable for any enormous distance, as there will be intermediate stations. The following is the track at present contemplated: From Par-is to Lis on; and thence to Cape St. Vincent, by land; from this place to the Can-ary Islands to Cape Verd, along the Afri-can coast, with stations at St. Louis (Senegal) and at Goree: from Cape verd to Cape St. Roque, on the coast of Brazil (a distance less thair one half that of the cabl intended to be laid by the Great Eastern:) from Cape St. Roque to Cayenne, along the American coast, and from Cayenne to New Orleans oy the coast or probably by cables connecting the principal West India Islands. The enterprise is more easily practicable than that conceived in England. The only difficulty will be to secure the preservation of their line on the African coast, and that security may be obtained by means of guard stations. The compawill have a concession for one hundred ours and the French Government will burdon the right of milking any concessions during that time. A subvention o four millions of francs, payable by instalments, will be granted when the company all have obtained the authorizations from all the governments over whose terr tory tric community between Paris and the Ca- Liabilities, mary Islands is to be completed within three years, and the whole line within five. -Paris Nord. DO HELP HIM.

OFFICE-MASONIC TEMPLE CHICAGO, LLLINOIS.

The symptoms of Catarrh as they generally appear are at first very elight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward becoming thuck and adhenive. As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice is thick and masal; the eyes are weak; the sense of small is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or sliney mneus which has fallen down from the head during the night. When this takes place, the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it. The above are but few of the many Catarrahl symptoms.
